Cheers

THREE CHEERS

Three Cheers for John Hay High
School
For John Hay High
Now all together, let us do or die.
'Gainst our dear old high school
None can compete.
Three Cheers for John Hay
Which knows no defeat.

A YELL

A yell, a yell, we have no yell,
But when we yell we yell for —
(slowly) J-O-H-N H-A-Y
(faster) J-O-H-N H-A-Y
(faster) J-O-H-N H-A-Y

GO BACK

Go back, go back,
Go back into the woods.
You haven't got,
You haven't got,
You haven't got the goods,
You haven't got the rhythm,
You haven't got the jazz,
You haven't got the team,
That John Hay has.

A TEAM

We got a T-E-A-M
That's on the B-E-A-M
We got a team that's on the beam
That's really hep to the jive,
Come on, John Hay
Skin 'em alive.

BEEF STEAK

How do you like your beef steak?
Raw-Raw-Raw
How do you like your cabbage?
Slaw-Slaw-Slaw
How do you like your sweetheart?
Sweet-Sweet-Sweet
How do you like (Name of school)
Beat-Beat-Beat.

ALMA MATER

Let our hearts be filled with knowledge,
Purge our souls with flame,
Tell the world we truly love you
And revere your name.
Throw the gates of wisdom open,
Spread your learning far,
Let your torch so brightly burning,
Be our guiding star.

CHORUS

Let us follow, ever faithful,
Paths both right and true.
All our fame we proudly offer,
Dear John Hay to you.

Student Council

Adviser: Miss Jean Scheutzow

Organized to give the students the opportunity to govern their school in a democratic manner, the Student Council promotes worthwhile projects, creates co-operation among the students, and lends community activities.

Representatives on the Student Council are elected by the homerooms to serve for one year.

Various services performed by the Council include supervision of the information desk in the foyer, and assisting the homeroom teacher with new students, grades, and the routine of homeroom business.

Alfreda Harvey, student city manager, and 16 organization directors make up the cabinet.

These members serve as directors of service, athletics, recreation, corridor guards, school store, finance, study halls, and library helpers.

President, vice-president, recording secretary, and the corresponding secretary of the Student Council also attend the cabinet meetings as representatives of the Student Council. Council officers serve for one semester while cabinet members serve for a year.

Corridor Guard Directors

Helping to keep the halls clean and assisting students is only a part of the volunteer services that the corridor guards perform.

Welcoming visitors and directing them to the office is another duty. The Corridor guards hold their general discussion meetings twice a semester to receive instructions from the director of corridor guards.

At assembly programs and Open House they help direct traffic to various rooms where exhibits are held. Guards prevent loitering in the halls and they protect students' property by seeing that locker doors are locked.

Directors in charge each period give the guards notices and instructions concerning their duties.

Quill And Scroll

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for high school journalists. Requirements for membership are a general scholastic average of B, completion of at least three semesters of journalism, and a good record of service on the Ledger staff.

Ledgers Reporters

Scurrying about the halls, the reporters keep their eyes and ears open for news of interest for the next issue. Assigned beats furnish news to reporters who also keep their eyes open for good feature stories.

Ledger Secretaries

Ledger secretaries are elected by homerooms to serve for one year. Their duties are very important. They collect money for the activity tickets and distribute the John Hay Ledger. The money collected from the activity tickets is used to support the Ledger and to help the athletic department.

Hay Ride

Committee members start the year's work by distributing questionnaires to seniors who fill in the list of activities and state their preference for class motto, class flower, and class colors. The year-long job is under way.

Then the Hay Ride Committee turns to writing copy for all organizations, drawing up senior panels, making up, and finally pasting up dummies for printing. After that comes proof-reading of copy and at last early in March the book is off to the printer and binder.

Art classes work under the direction of Mrs. Helen Chudoba, art instructor, to make the incidental drawings in the book.

Robinson, M. Brown, W. Philips, J. Parrish, R. Shine, J. Standard.

In rain, sun, sleet, or snow the band marches and plays to rally enthusiasm at games. Whether playing for assemblies or pep rallies or marching down the field at games, the band is always welcomed by students and faculty.

The organization is open to anyone who plays an instrument or who wants to learn to play. Marching across the field every morning, the band practices and drills at the same time. Formations are learned by the group to be performed on the field for the students' enjoyment.

Band may be taken for credit toward graduation or for service.

Majorettes

Leading the band with their twirling batons and at the same time keeping step with the music are the majorettes.

In order to join this organization you must pass the entrance test and be willing to spend long hours of practice on intricate steps and on twirling.

A good attendance record is an asset in becoming a majorette.

Cheerleaders

VARSITY

Adviser: Mrs. Kolb

Esther Perry, Pat Bennet, Madeline Smith, Barbara Fuller, Erma Davis, Veriline Johnson, Delores Pownes, Rebecca Williams, Leona Hubbard.

Boosting the football and basketball players' morale is the cheerleaders' job as they stand in front of the stands and urge the fans to yell a little louder.

One favorite cheer is Susie Q.

Susie Q, trucking on down,
John Hay High is going to town,
Swing it to the left,
Swing it to the right,
Come on, Hay High,
Fight! Fight! Fight!

The cheerleaders hold rehearsals after school and yearly tryouts to discover new talent.

Boosters Club

"Come on Green! Come on Gold! Come on John Hay, let's go!"
That's the cry of the Boosters Club, an organized cheering group. Characterized by their green and gold beanies, they attend all basketball and football games giving out school spirit.

At graduation the club gives medals to the boys who have been outstanding in athletics. These medals are purchased with the profits from the sale of football programs.

When assemblies call for musical entertainment, the Girls' Glee Club is always ready to oblige.

You do not have to have a perfect voice to join the Glee Club but must be able to carry a tune. Music is a means of expressing one's feelings. Learning to keep the correct key and to sing the right notes is a difficult task, but the girls find that practice brings success.

Stagecrafters

Hear that sound of wood being sawed and scenery being nailed down in the auditorium? The hard-working stagecrafters are up to something again.

No assembly or play would be possible without the stagecrafters. Headed by Mr. Emanuel Gebauer, this group's duties are many. They include keeping tab of all props, making stage sets, giving the actors proper lighting for plays, and setting up the risers for graduation ceremonies.

Making posters for the showcases in the main corridor and posters illustrating the various activities and drives that come along each year are some of the things the art service club does.

Incidental drawings in The Hayride are the work of the club and in every issue of The Ledger the editorial page cartoon shows the kind of service the members render.

Students take great pride in their work and every spring they exhibit in the Regional Scholastic Art Show. At the end of each semester the art service club has a luncheon with a professional artist as guest.

Students who like to draw may join the art service club. Service points are given for each semester of work.

Coach: Mr. George Spronz

Dribbling the ball down the court for the Green and Gold this season was a much improved basketball team. Fighting spirit backed by ability brought the team a higher rating in East Senate competition.

True to a prediction made by Coach Spronz, the Bookkeepers were not a pushover. Winning one game, they played well and certainly showed fine spirit in every game.
